

LEE MARTIN MCDONALD

Lee Martin McDonald earned his Th.M at Harvard Divinity School and his Ph.D. at the University of Edinburgh. He is Emeritus President and Professor of New Testament Studies at Acadia Divinity College, and Dean of the Faculty of Theology, Acadia University in Nova Scotia (1999-2007). He taught New Testament at the North American Baptist Seminary in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. He led several study tours in Greece, Turkey, Jordan, Egypt, and Israel, and served as Visiting Professor at both Princeton Theological Seminary and Chapman University. He also served as senior pastor in three American Baptist Churches and as a U.S. Army Reserve Chaplain. He has also served as Adjunct Professor of Biblical Studies at Arizona State University and Fuller Theological Seminary.

Dr. McDonald is well known for his work in the area of the formation of the Christian biblical canon of Scripture, an area in which he has published extensively. He served for six years as the President of the Institute for Biblical Research and is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature and the Society of New Testament Studies. He is the author/editor of 20 books and over 100 articles and essays on New Testament subjects, including The Biblical Canon: Its Origin, Transmission, and Authority; The Canon Debate; Forgotten Scriptures; and Early Christianity and its Sacred Literature.